

The Sounds of Keshet Eilon

Concert series in the Keshet Eilon Hall, Kibbutz Eilon, Western Galilee

2011–2012 Season
September 2011 – June 2012

All proceeds are devoted to funding Keshet Eilon Music Center activities

~~~~~
Dear friends and music lovers,

We take pleasure in announcing the opening of our ninth "Sounds of Music" concert series for 2011-2012.

This year, too, we offer a broad and varied repertory featuring outstanding works from the best of the classical music tradition in its different styles and periods, alongside Hebrew folk music and dance programs, which combine to create an exciting, eclectic concert season.

We focused on varied selections representing a personal message, reflecting the artistic vitality of the work. The inspiration of original artists who gave free rein to their talents is demonstrated onstage at Keshet Eilon by some the best artists in their fields.

We invite you to keep visiting us at Eilon and to be part of this growing endeavor.

Each of these events provides a gift of enjoyment, and all of them together evoke a sense of exaltation.

In the anticipation of welcoming you at Keshet Eilon,

Gilad Sheba

The Sounds of Keshet Eilon

The Season's Concert Programs

|                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FridayNov. 11, 20119:00 pm    | "Voices for All Time" – A celebration of vocal music with the Moran Choir and its soloistsA concert featuring one of Israel's most admired choirs performing Fauré's "Requiem," selections from operas including Borodin's "Prince Igor," a mass dedicated to the Moran Choir by Lithuanian composer Mishkanis, and Israeli vocal music, including music sung with audience participation.Conductor: Neomi Faran. |    |
| FridayDec. 2, 20119:00 pm     | The "High Windows" – Revisiting the classic hits of the well-loved Israeli pop group of the 1960s – the "High Windows."An innovative performance by three leading musicians: soprano Keren Hadar, composer and pianist Moshe Zorman, and marimba player and percussionist Assaf Rot.                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                       |
| ThursdayDec. 29, 20119:00 pm  | Semion Gavrikov and FriendsA chamber music concert of works by Mozart, Kodaly and Dvorak performed by violinist Semion Gavrikov, a Keshet Eilon alumnus; pianist Roman Rabinovich, winner of the Arthur Rubinstein Competition; violist Katya Polin; cellist Michal Korman; and violinists Ying Xue (China) and Arnaud Sussman (France).                                                                               |    |
| SaturdayDec. 31, 20114:00 pm  | Final Concert, Keshet Eilon Winter Seminar for Israeli ViolinistsAdmission free                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                       |
| FridayJan. 20, 20129:00 pm    | "Crazy Rhythms" with PercaDu Duo and Gil ShochatInternational percussionists PercaDu join composer, pianist and conductor Gil Shochat to create a unique musical experience that includes percussion and ethnic arrangements of works by Bach, Rachmaninov and Bartok.                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                       |
| FridayFeb. 10, 20129:00 pm    | "From Brahms to Piazzola – Sparks from 20 Fingers"Piano duo Tami Kanazawa and Yuval Admoni present a varied program of inspirational classical music alongside light works, arranged for two pianos.                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| FridayMarch 2, 20129:00 pm    | "David and Bathsheba – A Flamenco Drama"An exciting original production based on the biblical story of David and Bathsheba performed by the Israeli Compas flamenco troupe with guest artist Miguel Angel of Spain.                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                       |
| FridayMarch 30, 20129:00      | "Brahms in a Rainbow of Colors"A concert of works by the German Romantic composer Johannes Brahms performed by four of Israel's most talented musicians: violinist Hagai Shaham, cellist Zvi Plessner, the young violist Yuval Gotliebovich, and pianist Arnon Erez.                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| SaturdayMarch 31, 20124:00 pm | Final Concert, Keshet Eilon Spring Seminar for Israeli ViolinistsAdmission free                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                       |
| FridayApril 20, 20129:00 pm   | "Voices of the Land – Composers and Lyricists of a Century Ago"Vocalist Yonit Shaked Golan performs classic Israeli songs by David Zahavi, Natan Alterman, Moshe Vilensky, Leah Goldberg, and Sara Levi Tanai, with Gabi Argov, pianist.                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                       |
| FridayMay 11, 20129:00 pm     | The Israel Trio – Hillel Zori, cello; Menahem Breuer, violin; Roglit Ishay, pianoOne of the most distinguished trios in the world today performs works by Beethoven, Dvorak and Stuchevsky, as well as Max Bruch's "Kol Nidrei," arranged especially for a piano trio.                                                                                                                                                 |  |
| FridayJune 1, 20129:00 pm     | The Amerent String QuartetThe Amerent String Quartet of the U.S.A. appears at Keshet Eilon as part of a concert tour in Israel. First violinist Misha Vitenson, an alumnus of Keshet Eilon, is joined by violinist Marcia Littlely, violist Michael Klotz, and cellist Jason Calloway. The quartet is widely admired for its beautiful sound and the expressiveness and intelligence of its performances.              |  |

Tickets

Single concert: NIS 80

Discount price: NIS 75 (for residents of the Matteh Asher Region; members of the Keshet Eilon organization; senior citizens; guests of B&Bs and hotels in the region; and subscribers to the "Sounds of Music" concert series)

Subscription for 6 concerts

New subscriber: NIS 420

Previous subscriber / Friend Brings a Friend: NIS 390

Added subscription cost for round trip chartered bus travel: NIS 240 (depending on number of participants). Buses will leave from Nahariya, Kfar Vradim and Ma'alot.

For additional details and ticket purchases:

Keshet Eilon Office, tel. 04-985 8191/8131

Sunday-Thursday 8:00 am-5:00 pm Fri. 8:00 am-1:00 pm

Or at the Keshet Eilon ticket office, tel. 04-985 8146, two hours before the concert

Keshet Eilon Music Center

Kibbutz Eilon, Western Galilee 22845

Tel. 04-985 8191/8131

Fax 04-980 6766

kesheteilon@012.net

www.keshetei.org.il

Isracard holders: NIS 100 discount for a double subscription for 415 points

The Keshet Eilon Concert Hall is wheelchair accessible